Happy Valentine's Day

600 Hill Road North,
Pickerington, Ohio 43147

1 February 2020
Volume 27, Issue 4

Brothers in Christ,

February is consistently recognized as the month of love. I hope we will all have the opportunity to express our love and appreciation to our wives or significant others.

Our February schedule (below) offers many opportunities for all to become involved with the Seton Knights. For those of you whom we have not seen in a while, consider joining us to improve yourself as a Catholic gentleman. For new members, come introduce yourself and your family to us all. Become a vibrant part of our church family and assist us in helping others.

Saturday, Feb 1st is the annual Dodgeball tournament. Our Squires circle 4891 hosts this Statewide event. To watch and interact with these 40 or so fine young Catholic men is a joy! Seton Council hosts a spaghetti dinner for them after 5:00 mass. Please consider coming out to assist around 4:30pm.

Saturday, Feb 8th is our Wives Appreciation Dinner. Brothers you cannot afford to miss this quality meal and fine night out for your lady. There is no charge for this great start to your Valentine's week. Personal invitations to your wife have been mailed; make sure they (and you) say YES! Please RSVP as soon as possible. My apologies for giving a 2018 date - the date is February 8, 2020

Sunday, Feb 16th is the last Pancake Breakfast for this Fraternal year. Our Pancake Breakfast crew has done an awesome job this year showing consistent excellence every month. Please help wrap up this season with a great turnout of volunteers and customers. Extra help will be needed after this breakfast for the "Big Move". Equipment and supplies will need to be moved to the PAC for Lent.

Saturday, Feb 22nd is the day of the 23rd Annual Catholic Men's Conference. "Men of God Building Virtue". This is the time to strengthen your faith and join in fellowship, while experiencing an event unlike any other. It begins at 8:00 am and ends at 3:00 pm. Our Council has approved up to 2 rebates per family ($10 per) to attend the Men's or Women's conference. Hope to see you there.

Friday, Feb 28th will be our First Fish Fry. This is 11187's largest fundraising event and 45+ volunteers are needed every week to serve close to 600 guests. Everyone's help is needed (as helpers or customers) to continue the success of these events. We want to open by 5:00pm so please try to turnout by 4:30pm. If you can't come early, please come later and stay late to assist with the cleanup. Please remember a big part of our success is the great desserts provided by our member's families.

Fraternally,

Frank Hare

“CHANCELLOR’S CORNER

Brother Knights, February has arrived, and with it come the traditional themes of love and romance that are associated with the Valentine’s Day celebration. Much has been written about the origins of Saint Valentine’s Day within the Church; how the Church established February 14 as a feast day honoring two saints who were martyred for their beliefs, as an alternative to the Roman tradition of young men choosing young women by lottery at this time each year to be their companions.

We also are aware of all the trappings and traditions that have evolved in this country regarding the secular, “Hallmark” holiday of Valentine’s Day. Candy, cards, hearts and lots of pink and red decorations adorn the stores and shopping centers from just after Christmas through February 14 each year. Youngsters exchange valentine cards in school and in some cases experience their first romantic crushes. Men, generally less romantic than the opposite sex, wander into card shops, malls and florists with no clue how to express their feelings for their ladies, but convinced that the answer lies in spending money at a retail establishment. Women imagine that all sorts of romantic gestures are forthcoming from their men and feign delight when we show up with yet another Whitman’s Sampler in a red, heart shaped box.

Such is the status of our annual celebration of love in America. But love is a much more complex issue that requires constant contemplation and exercise if it is to truly exist. What, then, is this thing called “love” that plays such a fundamental role in our lives? As Catholics, we are taught at least three kinds of love: for God, for ourselves, and for others. How we express this love is, I think, the most fascinating aspect of our humanity. And one means of expression that encompasses elements of each of the three types of love set out above is the concept of family. I would like to focus on the role of love in the family, and the role of family in the expression of love.

Our Pope, John Paul II, has throughout his ministry been a great champion of family life. In his work entitled Familiaris Consortio written in the early 1980’s, the Pope describes the role of the family in the Church as follows: “Christian marriage and family build up the Church; for in the family the human person is not only brought into being and progressively introduced by means of education into the human community, but by means of rebirth in baptism and education in faith is also introduced to God’s family, which is the Church”. Thus, we convey our love of God by nurturing the family unit.

Similarly, the family is the basis for our understanding of the need to love ourselves, and where we establish our identity and self-worth. Parents have an irreplaceable role in developing the human and spiritual life of their children. The child who is the product of a loving family environment will develop a strong sense of self-worth and esteem. The Pope addresses parents as the “first evangelizers” of their children. This an important message in our modern times when the demands of two income families leave some kids feeling alone while their parents are busy with other matters. Clearly, the family is the foundation for learning to love oneself.

Finally, the family is the place where the acceptance of the full dignity of each person begins. “If a sense that all persons are equal in dignity does not begin in the family, it probably will not happen elsewhere” (Familiaris Consortio). Within the family, there are two key relationships that affirm the basic equality and dignity between persons. First, there is the love between husband and wife. In his writings, the Pope sees this love as an expression of full self-giving; one may not use the other as an object or a thing for selfish purposes. Second, the relationship between parent and child, in addition to forming a child’s self-worth, is paramount in forming a child’s basis for relationships with his fellow humans outside of the family. The abused child will not learn dignity and love for his fellow man. Therefore, the family is the basis for establishing a sense of love for others. In conclusion, the concept of love embodies more than what is represented by an annual day of exchanging cards and candy. It certainly is not to be found in the emphasis on sex and sexuality portrayed in the media. Rather, it is that sense of love for God, others and ourselves that, as our pontiff so clearly understands, begins first and foremost within our familial relationships. Our challenge, then, is to work hard all year round on our relationships with our children, our spouses, and our friends. Never take for granted that your family and friends know how you feel about them. Rather, no matter how awkward or uncomfortable it may sometimes seem, express your love often for those you care about, in words and deeds. Additionally, we must look within ourselves to understand who we are as individuals, and to do what is necessary to be at peace with who we are. By so doing, we will advance the love of God as He has designed.

Fish Fry Help Needed

Brother Knights, our Council Fish Fry fundraisers have grown to over 550 guests per event (and continue to grow). It is no small task for the council to host such a large dinner. Our Seton Knights are being asked to sign up and commit them-selves to a fry or more. Please watch for a soon to be distributed chart of the 40+ positions that we need to fill on Fridays. Unless otherwise noted we need you to please show up at 4:30-5:00 and stay to assist with clean up. If you can not commit, still come when you can - we will find a role for you.

Thanks in advance for your help and cooperation,

the Fish Fry Guys.

Did You Know ...

One of the best things about being part of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Council 11187 is the fellowship provided.

Now just around the corner is the Catholic Men's Conference on February 22nd (see the broacher included in the newsletter). This is a wonderful opportunity to gather with fellow Catholic men and profess our faith. There are always great speakers, a Reconciliation Service and Mass.

Now this year we are offering a bonus, We will rebate $10 towards your admission to the conference and we are extending this to your wife's ticket to the Women's Conference the week before.

So each household of the Council is eligible for a $20 rebate, but (yes there is always a but) to get the refund, you must be present the receipt at the March or April business meeting.

This is a limited time offer, so please take advantage
