HAPPY VALENTINES DAY!!!

600 Hill Road North,
Pickerington, Ohio 43147

1 February 2024
Volume 31, Issue 4

Worthy Brothers,

Groundhog Day Greetings Brothers of Council 11187,

On this past Groundhog Day Feb. 2nd, Punxsutawney Phil, that famous Spring predicting rodent did not see his shadow. This supposedly indicates an early Spring. Phil's current accuracy according to Google is around 40 %. Flip a coin. FYI- the origins of Groundhog day can be traced back to Candlemas and the blessing of the Church's candles for the year. With all of the recent sun we are experiencing how could anyone NOT see their own shadow and rejoice at the end of this winterseason. Spring is just around the corner. The morning light is coming earlier and earlier each day. We know this because every day my wife and I leave for work at 7 AM, we get to witness HIS promise to us of a new day. Sorta like the movie GroundHog Day.

February is once again a busy month for our Council. We have our final Pancake Breakfast of the year on Sunday, February 11th. Afterwards, we need some help to move essential equipment and supplies to the PAC in preparation for the first Lenten Fish Fry on the following Friday. This process will start around 1 pm as the Pancake breakfast guys are finishing serving and cleaning up. Please lend your helping hands on this day. Brother Frank will also have sign up rosters for all 6 weeks of the Fish Fry's so you can reserve your favorite spot on the team.

We are having a new member exemplification on Sunday, Feb. 18th at Mark Decker's house starting at 2 pm. We are fortunate and blessed to be welcoming several new members to our council. One of the expected new members at this meeting will be Mr. Bob Blades. He is officially a new member of our Catholic faith and Church, thus eligible to join our ranks. He has accepted the invite to join. Many of you know him as one of the regular ministers of golf and Seton festival volunteer. Bob, and his wife Pat, have been quite active in various Seton ministries for many years.

The Church has also requested that all of the Knights who wish to continue with the First Sunday of the month greeter ministry program to participate in a formal greeter/welcome center training done by Seton Pastoral Associate, Mary Maresch. She has put several notices in the Church bulletin and on the website. Brother George Bartos will give a brief overview of how this is now working at our next meeting.

Also, our council has submitted our Annual Survey of Fraternal Activities to Supreme which reports how many service hours members of the council have done along with how much we gave to charities. Get ready guys because this is truly impressive. We gave $XXX in charitable disbursements and supplied 10,156 hours of service. This was from January 1, 2023 thru December 31, 2023. Many hands do make light work.

I would personally like you to see you, in person, in our Parish Activity Center this Lent. Forget the shadows and reflect HIS light. Then, all will know the Good News that Spring is here to stay and darkness will not overcome it because of you!

Vivat Jesus,

Francis Wilamosky

Chancellor's Corner - OUR CHURCH

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

A few years ago, we can all remember going to Mass in the PAC while our church was being renovated. What we may not have known was some of the background as to how the renovation was started, and the thought process behind it. I want to thank Frank Hare for bringing this Renovation Story, dated 7/30/23, to my attention. It is 64 pages long. As a result, I am going to take a small part and discuss it here.

The intent of the committee, utilizing the teachings of the Catechism of the Catholic Church CCC 1180, was to plan this project to "create a space that reflects the sacred nature of the Mass and Eucharist." "Christians construct buildings for divine worship,...churches are not simply gathering places but signify and make visible the Church living in this space, the dwelling of God with men."

Vatican II guided the committee as it dealt with artwork and architecture. Artwork should be composed of signs and symbols of heavenly realities, per the Sacrosanctum Concilium. Architecture would be guided by Built of Living Stone, Architecture and Worship, written by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops. It instructs on how to design places of worship that are dignified, beautiful and suited to the sacred celebrations.

So, look around at some of the features of the Church as you worship and try to understand the thought process behind each piece of artwork, and how the design reflects the committee's intent.

Lecturer's Reflection

Every time we recite the Nicene Creed, there is a portion that states: ...God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father...

In the Gospel of John (10:30), Jesus says, "I and the Father are one." And later in the same chapter (10:38), he reemphasizes, "that the Father is in me and I am in the Father."

Tonight I want to focus on "consubstantiation," what it is, and why it matters. According to Pat McClosky, OFM, consubstantial is, "simply one possible translation of the Latin equivalent of the Greek term homoousios (literally, "the same substance"). This term was not added to the Nicene Creed; rather, it makes this the Nicene Creed. In AD 325, at the Council of Nicaea, the bishops of the Catholic Church were invited by Emperor Constantine to gather at Nicaea in modern-day Turkey to address an extremely controversial issue raised by Arius, an Egyptian priest. The bishops took an existing creed used at Baptism and inserted the term homoousios.

Arius and his followers claimed that Jesus did not share the same substance as God the Father; the vast majority of bishops at Nicaea said that Jesus did. For many years, English-speaking Catholics used a translation that included the phrase "of one substance with the Father." Since 2012, the official text reads, "consubstantial with the Father." The belief that Jesus did not share the same substance as God the Father is known as the Arian heresy.

This may or may not be well known, but the Arian heresy lives on in modern times by way of Jehovah's Witnesses. In John 1:1, we read, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.." The translation of the Bible the Jehovah's Witnesses use translates John 1:1 as, "...The Word was a God." According to them, Jesus was a lesser god, but not the Almighty God. This is not meant to go deep into the Arian heresy and other heresies, but what is interesting is heresies tend to be Scripture based - but that is for another time.

My brothers, every time we recite the Nicene Creed and say "consubstantial," we reemphasize that Jesus was not only man, but divine, of the same substance as God the Father. This is not a teaching the early Church made up because it sounded good - they taught it because it is true. The early Creeds are one connection with the early Church and we recite the words they recited. In fact, the Creeds are the earliest way the faith was taught and promulgated; the Creeds are a unifier of our beliefs. The words recited in the Creeds are not just words to mindlessly recite, but are the beliefs, our beliefs, that our many brothers and sisters in Christ were (and are) martyred for - do not pay lip service to these words we recite.
