Chancellor's Corner

Out of charity my brothers, please pray Psalm 130 (De Profundis) or the Eternal Rest prayer for our deceased Brother Knights in Council 11187 who fell asleep in the Lord during the month of March:

- † Joseph J. Filipek – March 3, 2007
- † Geno J. Persichetti – March 14, 2022
- † Larry H. Lotz – March 15, 2005
- † Dr. Francis E. Joos – March 19, 2018
- † Scott S. Mucha – March 23, 2017

Steven Blevins

Chancellor

Psalm 130: A Song of Ascents.

Out of the depths I call to you, LORD;
 Lord, hear my cry!
 May your ears be attentive
 to my cry for mercy.
 If you, LORD, keep account of sins,
 Lord, who can stand?
 But with you is forgiveness
 and so you are revered.
 I wait for the LORD,
 my soul waits
 and I hope for his word.
 My soul looks for the Lord
 more than sentinels for daybreak.
 More than sentinels for daybreak,
 let Israel hope in the LORD,
 For with the LORD is mercy,
 with him is plenteous redemption,
 And he will redeem Israel
 from all its sins.

March Reflection

March begins again our yearly faith journey to walk with Christ through His life and teaching toward His eventual suffering, death, and resurrection. Beginning each year, we are asked to try to grow closer to Christ through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. While these are the methods used, they are not intended to be an end in themselves. While they may make us feel better, lose some weight, bring a smile to a person in need (all noble acts) these should not be our goal for the season. The goal should be to walk with Christ and grow closer to Him, to try and understand better His infinite love for us which culminated in His dying such a horrible death on the cross.

The discipline of Lent is to participate every day of the season at least with a short morning and evening prayer. There are 2 days of fasting for those 18 - 60 yrs. old - Ash Wednesday and Good Friday and abstinence every Friday from meat. These physical sufferings are meant to unite us with Christ's physical suffering not just to be a healthier way of eating. Think about joining a Lenten program or small group sharing to explore the season through the Scriptures and the eyes of your fellow Catholics. Maybe start or increase your time in Adoration and try to relax with God and listen to His guidance. Setup a prayer nook in your home to have a regular quiet place to pray and listen to God. Seach the great Catholic prayer apps such as Hallow, Ascension, Acts XXIX and EWTN to join their Lenten programs.

Let us spend this Lent growing closer to our Lord and increasing in the many spiritual graces He is ready to give us on our journey. Take time to regularly come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation to help heal our souls. May all these bring us to gloriously experience His Resurrection on Easter morning.

Council Shirts and Hats

Hello Brothers,

If anyone wants a KofC Council 11187 hat or shirt, please contact me.

Hats: I have a few hats left from the previous order that can be purchased for $24/ea. Once these are gone, we must purchase a minimum quantity of 12 at a cost $26/ea.

Shirts: I have three (3) shirts ordered (with names) and will reach out again to those brothers who previously ordered them. We have two (2) shirt providers with multiple options available. I will need names with desired spelling and sizes. Cost varies by provider and size.

While we can place orders one at a time, it is more efficient for providers to set up for multiple items.
